

Enervalis

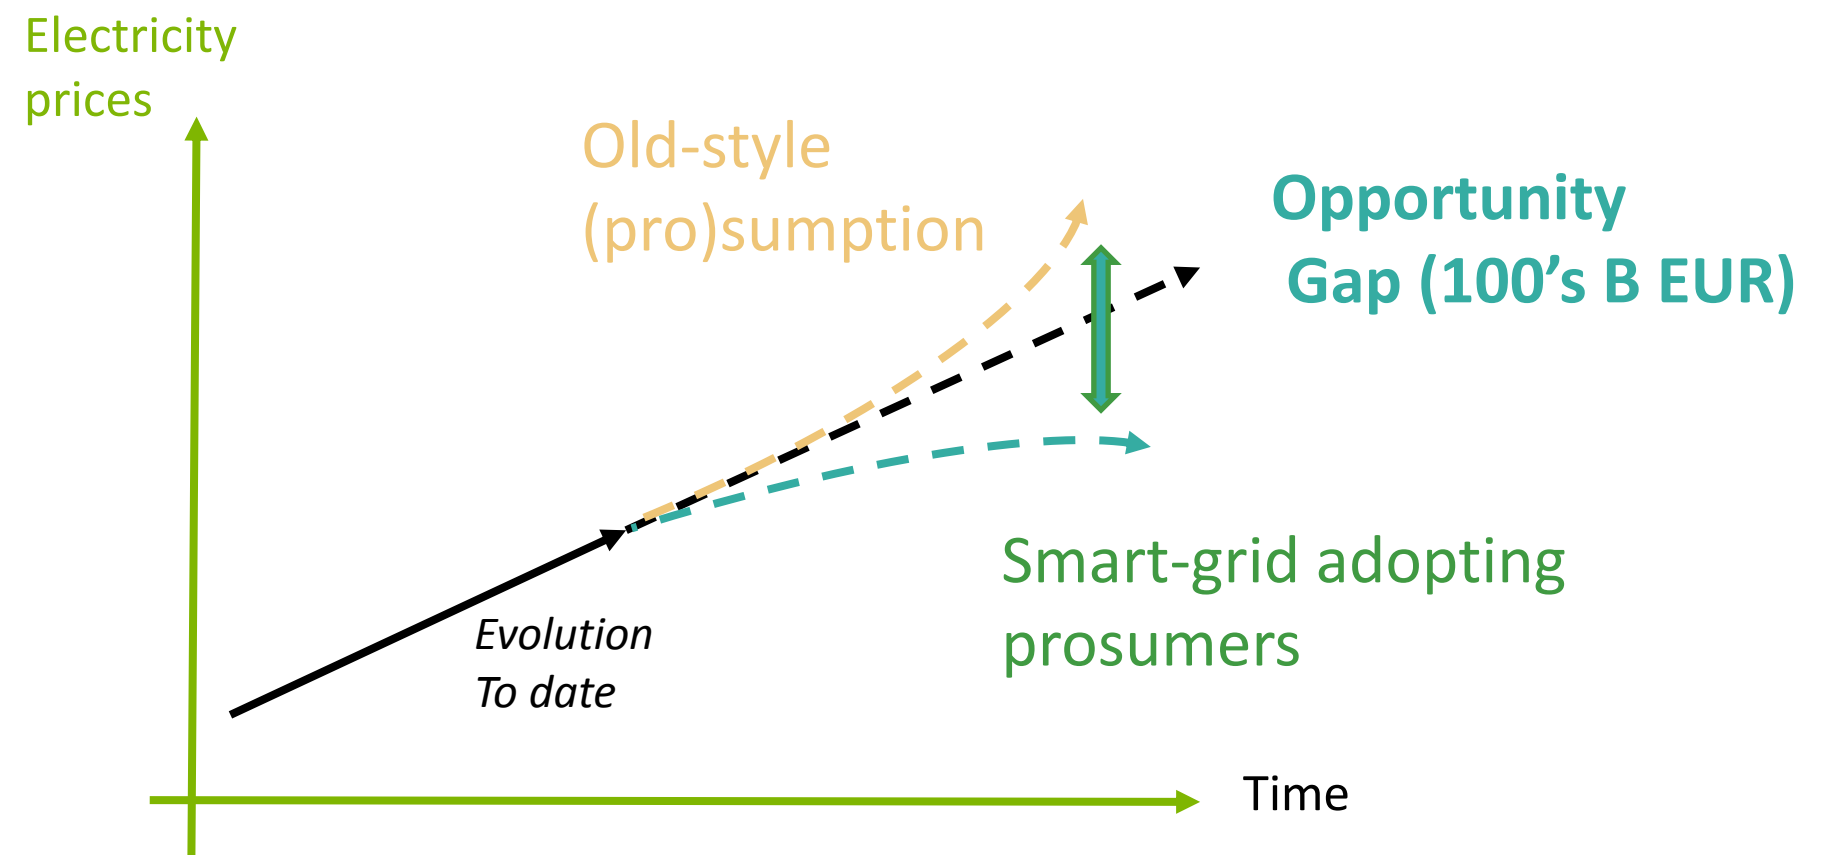

Creating more value with Energy

Stefan Lodeweyckx (CEO & Founder)

22/10/15, KIC TBB, Berlin

Why are we doing this?

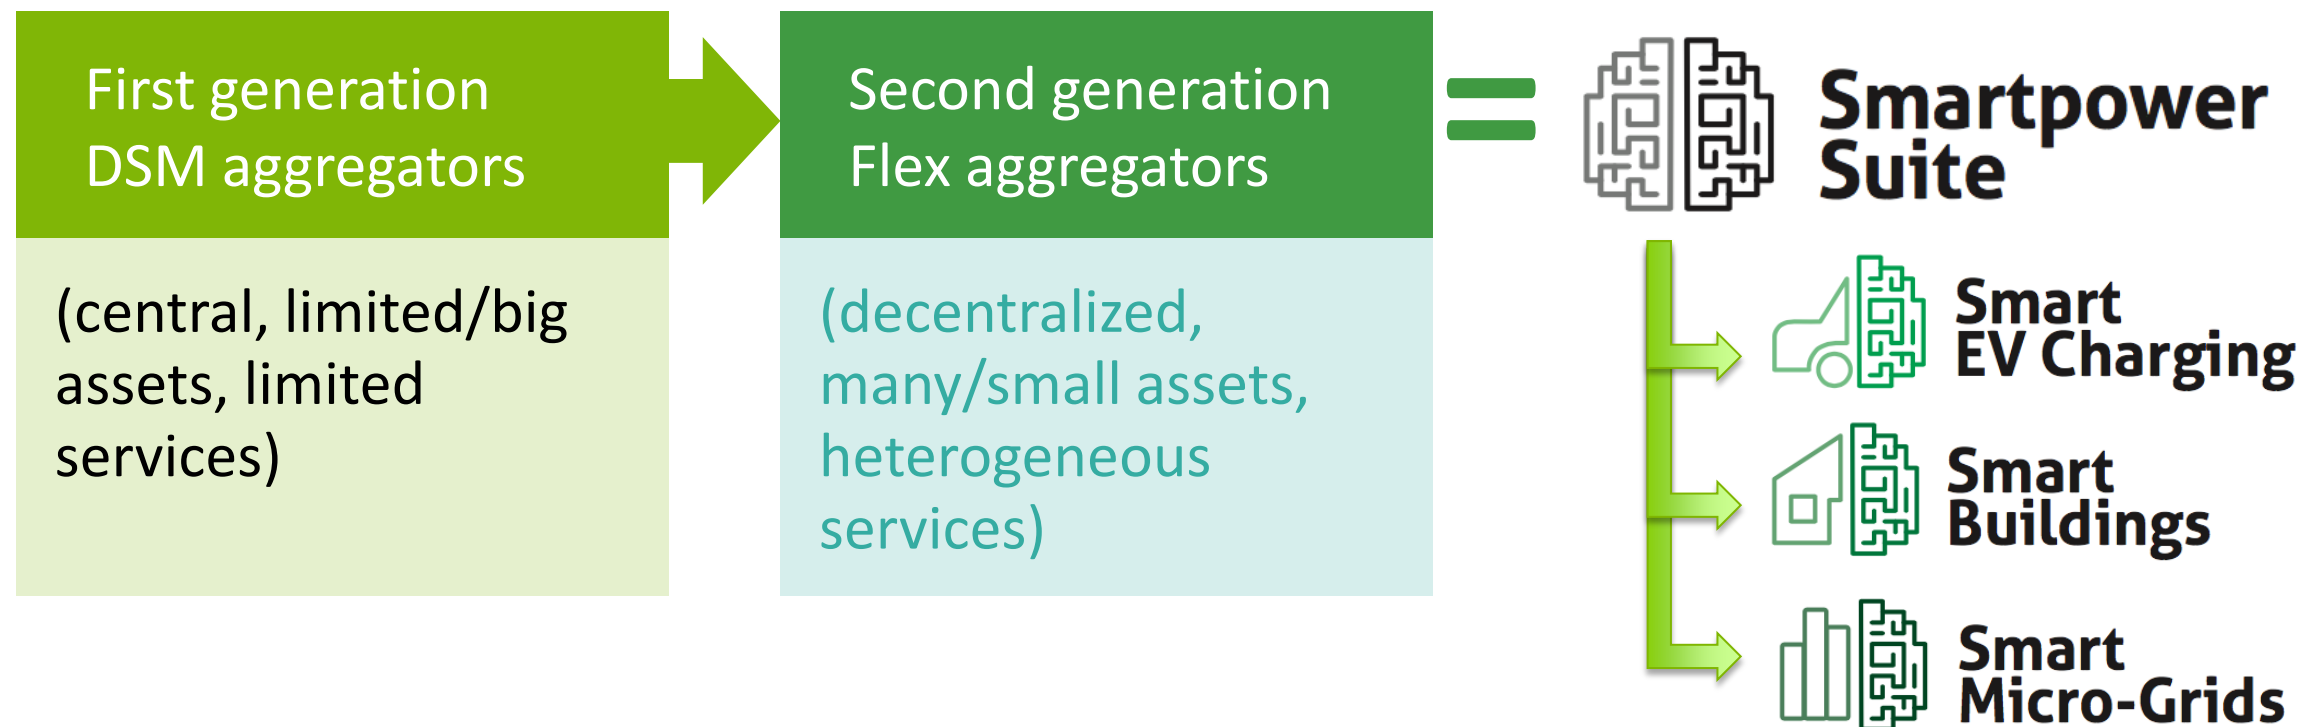

Enervalis

“We create the operating system of the future energy grid
For mass market energy service adoption”

“... and therewith support a green energy future”

Enervalis provides operational cost-reduction to customers via its software technology enablement platform via a SaaS model which exploits the value in the “Opportunity Gap”

How big data can save 20% of energy costs

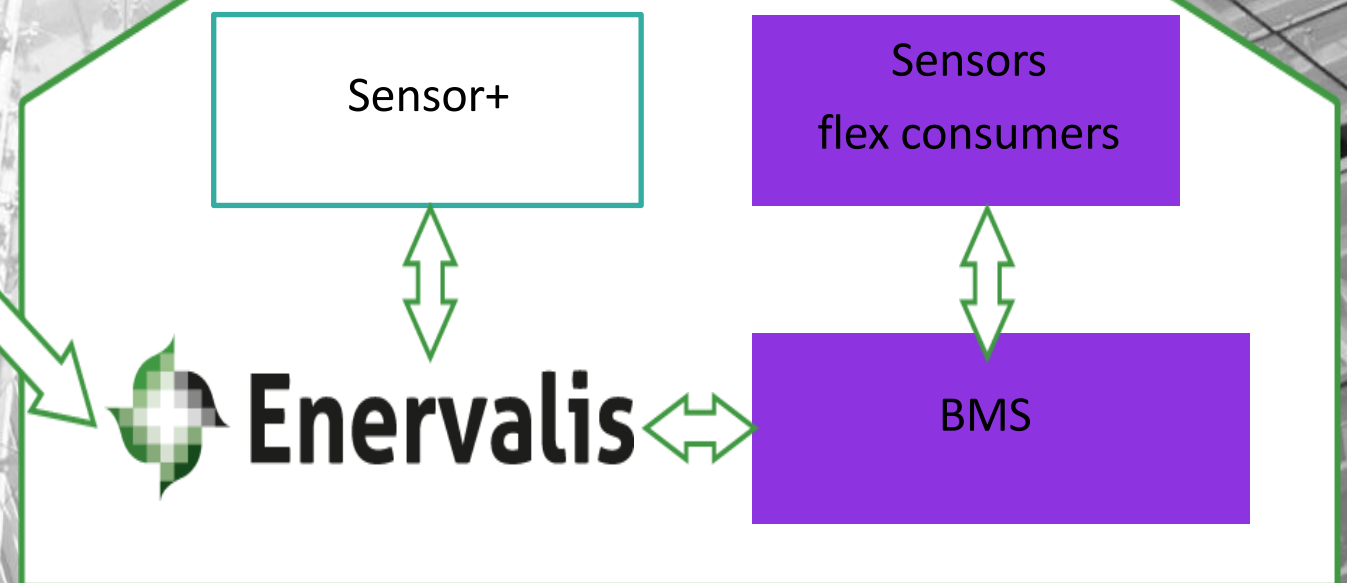

“this can lead to 20K-200K EUR/y savings”

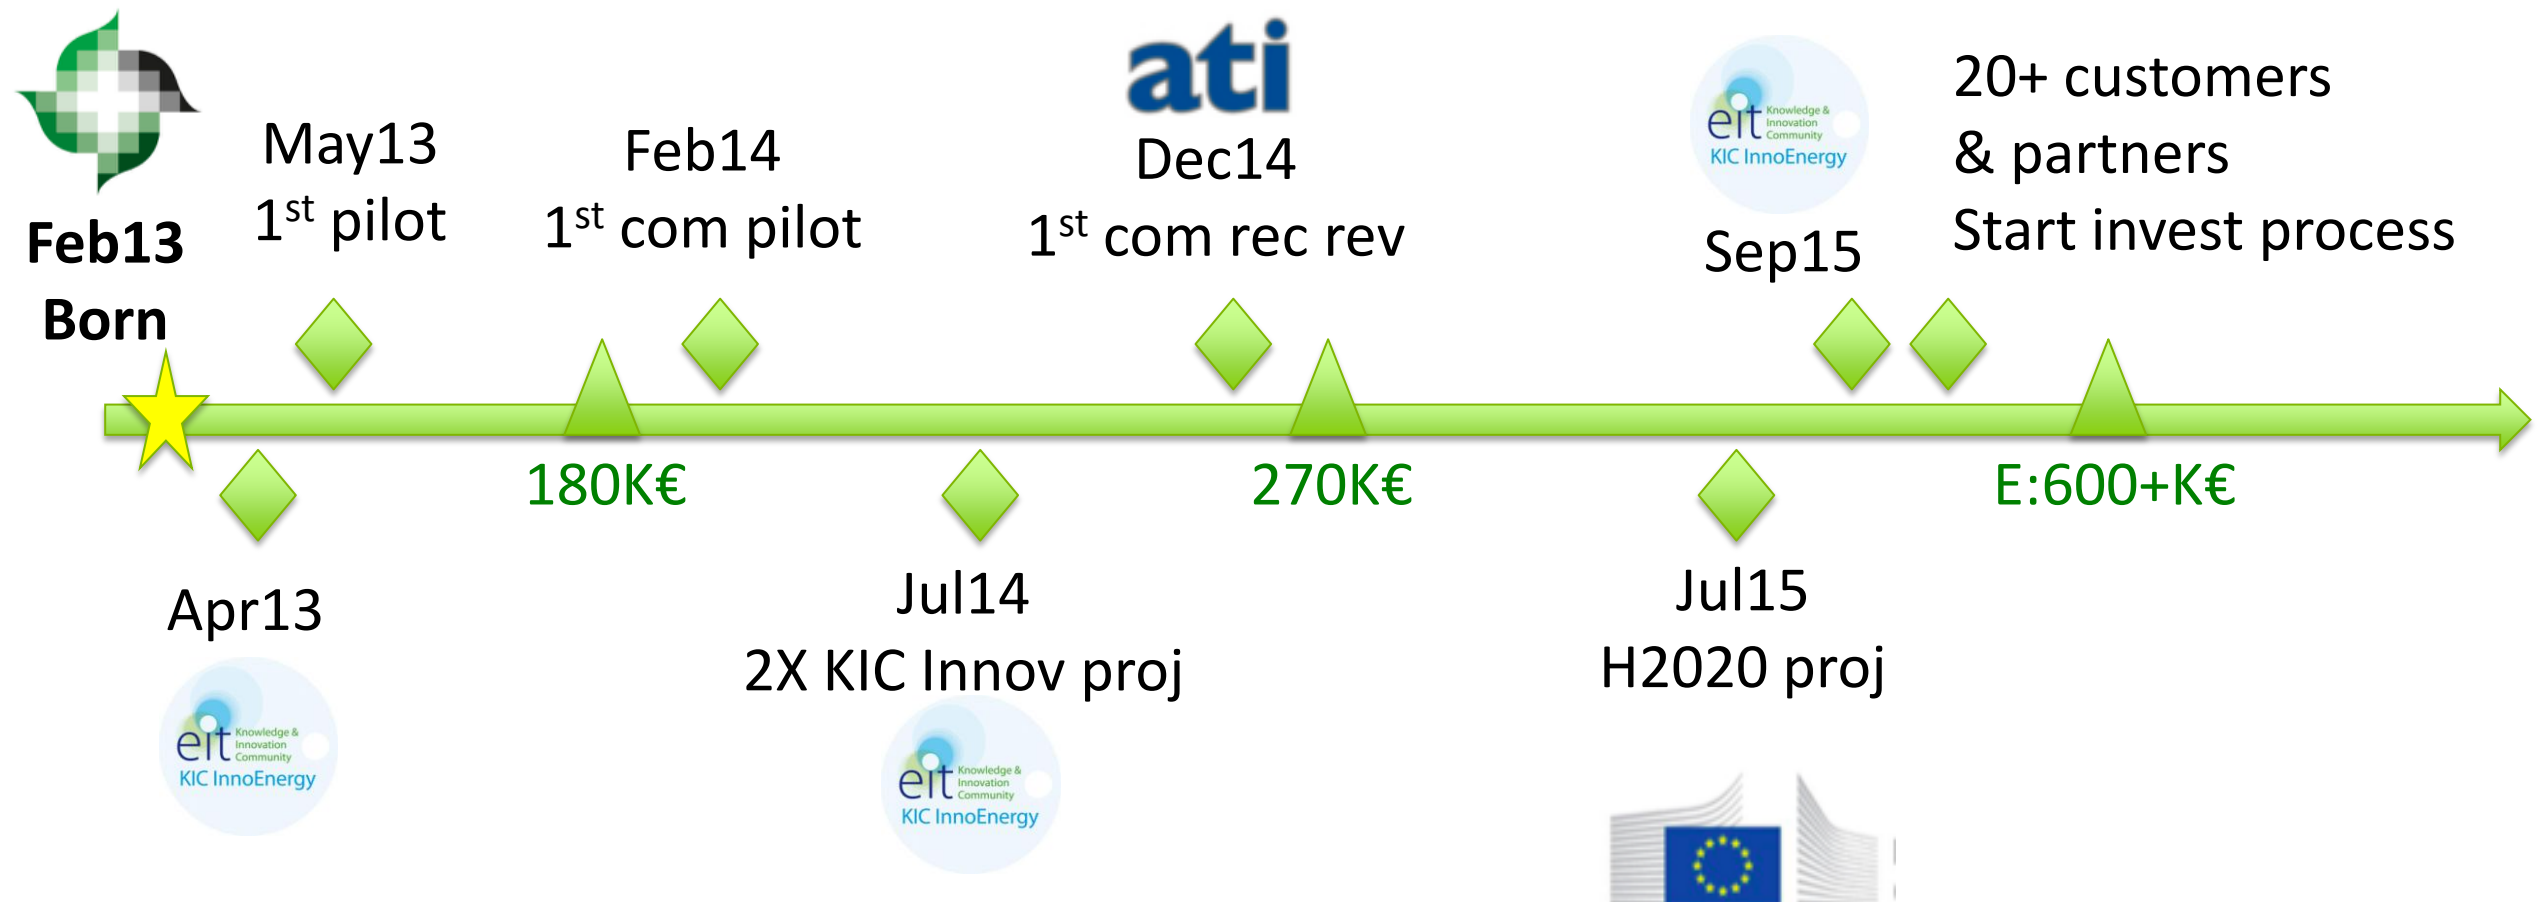

Energy market players

- Better energy prediction
- Higher energy reduction
- Reduced EUR/energy
